

Jamestown Store Sheep Market Report

21st November, 2019

Market Summary

A large crowd attended the Jamestown Market on Thursday 21st November 2019 with 23,000 Sheep yarded.

Yet again the yarding of sheep brought forward were presented in outstanding condition. The feature of the sale were the quality merino wether lambs and crossbred lambs selling to stronger competition. Both agents had quality lines of merino ewe lambs, older merino wethers, young and breeding ewes all selling at higher rates than the previous market.

Competition was extremely strong throughout the whole Market with re-stockers and feed lotters competing to push merino lambs to a top of $158 and Crossbreed Lambs to a top of $154. The first major offering of 2019 drop Ewe Lambs sold to a top of $234 for a line of 405, Complete Drop, presented by Wirrilla Holdings. Young Ewes once again sold exceptionally well selling to a top of $264, with several pens selling between $240 and $260.

Top-quality breeding ewes met strong demand with 4.5-year-old ewes selling to a top of $218 and 5.5-year-old ewes to a top of $202.
