Market Comment

Numbers decreased this week for a total yarding of 1,002 with Nutrien accounting for 763 head.

Majority of the yarding being yearling steers and heifers suitable for feeders. A larger number new season weaners were yarded. Slaughter grade cattle decrease in numbers.

Heavy new seasons weaner steers sold to strong competition averaging 386 c/kg. Values of yearling steers eased on quality.

An increased yarding of light weight weaner heifers sold to grazers averaging 272c/kg. Heavy yearling heifers sold to strong competition with values increasing 10-15 c/kg

The heavier prime cows sold 5 c/kg dearer and medium prime cows increased by 20 c/kg. Bulls were equal to last week's market.
